Machu Picchu & Inty Raymi Festival in Cusco

Cordillera Huayhuash Trek

The Amazon – The Inti Raymi Festival and Machu Picchu and the Cordillera Huayhuash Trek:
- An Amazing Journey!

We begin our holiday with a flight to Buenos Aires from Sydney. We arrive the same day i.e on the 14th. of June. We connect with a flight to Lima the same day and arrive early in the morning in Lima. Flights to Lima leave very early or late in the evenings because of the unusual problem with fog that this airport has.

On arrival in Lima – your transport will be waiting for you for the drive to the Hotel. You will need the much needed rest on this second day of the journey. Early on the 3rd day of your journey – you transfer to the airport for the short flight to Cusco. Have a free day today to recover from your travels with strolls around the central market place of Cusco and prepare for your exciting adventure to the Amazon Jungles. You embark on a 4 night 5 day journey – that involves travelling down to the Manu National Park in the Amazon. You have a variety of Jungle activities, and viewing various animals and birds and including camping – in the Park.

On day 8 you fly back to Cusco. Have a free day to unwind from your recent adventure and prepare yourself for another few days of varied activities. These include visiting Machu Picchu by train and bus, taking a tour of the Sacred Valley and attending the Inti Raymi festival in Cusco. This is a very colourful activity with lots of music and festivity. It is also a very busy tourist time in Cusco – so it is a good idea to book early for this and the train to Machu Picchu. Also take along a pair of ear plugs as there is lots of noise and festivities till the early hours of the morning.

After the Inca Cultural activities we fly to Lima early morning of 25 June – where our transport to the trek head will be waiting for us. Pack your bags in two lots so that you can leave behind in the bus the gear that you will not be taking on the trek. This bag will be returned to you after the trek at your hotel in Huaraz – the trekking capital of Peru.

On 7th. July we leave our hotel early for the 8 hour drive to Lima. We head to a good restaurant for a good meal and then transfer to the airport for the late night flight to Buenos Aires.

On 8th. July – we arrive early in the morning in Buenos Aires. We transfer to the Hotel – and have a leisurely 3 nights and 4 full days in Buenos Aires.

On 9th July we transfer late in the evening to the airport for the flight to Sydney.
We lose a day on flight because of date change and we arrive on the 13th. of July.

Changes to the itinerary may be made if the flight schedule does suit our current itinerary. However, our plans will remain for us to be in Cusco for the Inti Raymi Festival and to enjoy the holiday described above.
